

Rules & Regulations The Concentra Award

About The Concentra Award

Art.1

The Concentra Award recognizes excellence in video journalism. News items from television, websites, newspaper sites and IPTV news stations will be considered for the award. The Concentra Award is the overall award for the best video journalism item. Stories which are shot, edited and broadcast in one day and last up to five minutes will also be considered for The Breaking News Award. The Concentra Award was launched in 2005 and is given annually.

Entry Criteria

Art.2

Submitted entries must be between 1 and 10 minutes in length. All submissions must include English sub-titles including English language entries. The context of the entry must be clear. For broadcast items, we require the intro and outro for the item as stated by the newsreader. For online output, we require the associated website text and URL.

Art.3

Each entry has to be made by a video journalist that was personally responsible for the research of the item. He or she must have operated the camera and edited the piece. The voiceover can be recorded by another individual, however. Each news item has to be made on digital video and edited preferably on a PC/MAC.

Art. 4

Items to be considered for the Breaking News Award must to be shot, edited and broadcast/published on the same day and must be no longer than five minutes.

Art. 5

Deadline for entry submission is January 22nd, 2010, 12.00am.

Art.6

Submissions will be considered from individuals only. Individuals must be employed (either freelance or fixed) by a broadcaster, newspaper, a recognized IPTV news station or recognized news website.

Art.7

Individuals may enter a maximum of three news items. Each entry must comprise news items broadcast or published in the calendar year 2009.

How to enter

Art. 8

Entries can be submitted via the following methods only:

- DVcam-tape, CD-ROM or DVDdisc only
- Tape to be rewound completely

Please download and complete the form and send together with the news item to:

The Concentra Award

Please note: A separate registration form needs to be submitted for each news item.

The Jury

Art. 9

The jury consists of nine individuals. For more details, please see the jury section.

How the winners are chosen

Art. 10

Initial selection:

In the event of an overwhelming number of entries, a preliminary selection will be made by the Concentra Award organizers. Each jury member will individually select their top five submissions plus their favorite Breaking News item. The jury selections will be combined to form the longlist. Second selection: Each jury member will then individually consider the longlist and put their top selections forward for the shortlist. The shortlist will form the Award nominees.

Final selection:

This list of nominees will be published on this website three weeks before the jury gathers in Brussels. The jury, as a group, will meet to examine and discuss the nominated items. The most highly rated item will win The Concentra Award. The most highly rated breaking news item will win The Breaking News Award. Theoretically, the winner of the Breaking News Award can also be the winner of The Concentra Award. In the event the jury is tied, the jury chairman will have the casting vote.

Nominations

Art. 11

All nominated entries and winners for each year of The Concentra Award and The Breaking News Award shall be accessible to the public via this website.
